

Bibstyle test — biblatex authoryear (Kai's default)

This document tests how five different ways of representing the same NBER working paper render under Kai's default bibliography style (`biblatex authoryear`, biber backend, `natbib=true`).

In-text citations

- Published article (control): (Smith and Jones, 2024).
- WP-as-@article, plain: (Doe and Roe, 2024a).
- WP-as-@article, with {} protection: (Doe and Roe, 2024b).
- WP-as-@techreport: (Doe and Roe, 2024c).
- WP-as-@unpublished: (Doe and Roe, 2024d).
- WP-as-@online: (Doe and Roe, 2024e).

References

- Doe, Alice and Bob Roe (2024a). “Resource Curse Revisited: Evidence from Mining Booms”. In: NBER Working Paper No. 31234.
- (2024b). “Resource Curse Revisited: Evidence from Mining Booms”. In: NBER Working Paper No. 31234.
- (2024c). Resource Curse Revisited: Evidence from Mining Booms. Working Paper 31234. National Bureau of Economic Research.
- (2024d). “Resource Curse Revisited: Evidence from Mining Booms”. NBER Working Paper No. 31234.
- (2024e). Resource Curse Revisited: Evidence from Mining Booms. NBER Working Paper No. 31234. National Bureau of Economic Research. URL: <https://www.nber.org/papers/w31234> (visited on 05/21/2026).
- Smith, John A. and Mary B. Jones (2024). “Causal Effects of Trade Liberalization in Brazil”. In: American Economic Review 114.2, pp. 123–156.